These items give increased sp on synthesis. theres a gathering variant of the scroll available as well Now i havent seen any topic on here in regards to these so far, so i dunno how many people know about them. So anyway i decided to try one out and it give me about 4050% more sp on a 3hr duration, at the rank i tried it out on. I dunno if its really a % or based on rank, or fixed and based on rank or such. Just figured id put the info out there since i noticed there wasnt anything on the item at yg. Its quite awesome for skilling up. Ill have to see if i can atleast see how long itll last for me in real time. The SP bonus seems to be around 5k Rough calculation based on what I was making, I think mine hit its SP limit after about 4000 points. I say bonus sp because sweat of brow doubles base sp as well, so you dont get double, then an extra 50% on top of that Ive been burning through these. Fill out the form below to receive access. I consent to the processing of my personal data I have provided above as well as the creation and use of my profile for such purposes. You are free to decide whether you want to give the consent or not. Please, read the consent text carefully, before ticking the box. If you decide not to give your consent, please, do not continue with the signup. Such withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of the processing prior to the consent withdrawal. You also have the right to object to a use of your personal data for direct marketing purposes including profiling. Grundfos will collect the personal data provided by you when signing up for Grundfos marketing services, this can include your first and last name, your email address, your telephone number, your country, your company, related company information, your area of interest and your job role hereinafter the "Personal Data". Grundfos will use the Personal Data for the purposes of delivering the requested marketing services to you and to provide you with a personalised experience, information and marketing messages relevant to you via email, SMS, phone, push notifications or letter relating to Grundfos news, tools, applications, products events and promotions. In order for Grundfos to fulfil the abovementioned activities, Grundfos will store your Personal Data, analyse your behaviour and create a profile based on your actions on the different Grundfos websites, applications or tools, you have access to, including where you have created a Grundfos Account or filled in a form. To analyse your behaviour Grundfos is using an Adobe Experience Cloud Visitor ID to identify visitors and their interests on the Grundfos websites via cookies. Please, read our cookie policy for more information on Grundfos' usage of cookies. Additionally, if you have a Grundfos Account, you will get a Public User ID that will be picked up and saved, for each page you have viewed, when you are logged in.

Your Adobe Experience Cloud ID or your Public User ID is combined with your email address and from these ID's Grundfos may utilise additional customer attributes to streamline marketing information that is more relevant to you. Your Personal Data may only be processed for different purposes if this is needed to comply with legal or regulatory obligations e.g. relating to court proceedings or criminal prosecution authorities, where you have consented to the respective processing or if the processing is otherwise lawful under applicable law. If processing is for any different purpose we may provide you with additional information. You are not obliged to provide your consent to receive marketing services and therefore the related processing of your personal data. If you do not provide your consent, you will not be able to access any such services. Grundfos can share your Personal Data with third party parties who will act as Grundfos' data processors for processing your Personal Data according to the purposes mentioned above. Retention period Data collected for the purposes stated above will be stored only as long as is necessary to meet the demands mentioned above, and once you have not withdrawn your marketing consent. This means that if you withdraw your consent, Grundfos will, as soon as possible, remove the link directly to your profile identity in the marketing system and will only keep your system ID to make sure that we will not contact you again with our marketing services. Be aware that where you have given your consent for additional marketing services by signing up for one or more of Grundfos' other services, i.e. created a Grundfos Account or signed up for Grundfos for Installers, Grundfos will continue to process your Personal Data for these other purposes. If you wish for Grundfos to completely stop processing your Personal Data, please follow the instructions given in the privacy notices for each relevant service.

If a judicial or disciplinary action is initiated, the Personal Data may be stored until the end of any such action, including any potential periods of appeal. It will then be deleted or archived. Your Personal Data will not be kept in a form that will allow you to be identified for any longer than is reasonably considered necessary by Grundfos for achieving the purposes for which it was collected or processed or as is recommended in the applicable laws related to data retention periods. Your Rights If you have consented to participate in any personal data processing activities, you may withdraw this consent at any time. Such a request will not affect the legality of any activity undertaken prior to any consent withdrawal. Right of access You may have the right to obtain from us confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning you is processed, and, where that is the case, to request access to that personal data. However, this is not an absolute right and the interests of other individuals may restrict your right of access. You may have the right to obtain a copy of the personal data undergoing processing. For further copies requested by you, we may charge a reasonable fee based on administrative costs. Right to rectification You may have the right to request us to rectify any inaccurate personal data concerning you. Depending on the purposes of the processing, you may have the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement. Right to restriction of processing Under certain circumstances, you may have the right to obtain from us, restrictions regarding the processing of your personal data. Where this is the case, the respective data will be indicated and may only be processed by us for certain agreed purposes. Right to object Under certain circumstances, you may have the right to object, on grounds that relate to your individual situation.

We may also collect personal data from your use of our websites see "Website visitors", and, if you have a Grundfos account, also "Users of Grundfos digital offerings". Finally, we may collect or receive personal data from third parties, such as business partners of Grundfos, or from publicly available sources. We use the personal data for daytoday cooperation, planning, administration, handling of invoices, etc.

Legal bases for the processing of personal data by Grundfos In accordance with data protection laws, we apply different legal bases when we collect and process personal data, depending on the specific context In some cases, we ask for your consent GDPR Article 61a, e.g. your consent to receive direct marketing materials from us but please note that in accordance with local laws, some jurisdictions may be based on optout instead of optin or your consent to cookies on our websites. You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. A withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of our processing prior to the withdrawal or processing based on a different legal basis than consent. For this reason, we process your personal data to ensure our compliance with such obligations GDPR Article 61c. If you want to know more about how your personal data is being processed for our legitimate interests, please reach out to us using the below contact details. We will only process your personal data for a different purpose than that for which the personal data was originally collected if this is necessary to comply with legal or regulatory obligations e.g. transfer to courts or criminal prosecution authorities, if you have consented to the respective processing, or if the processing is otherwise lawful. How we share and transfer your personal data We share your personal data only when needed to realise the purposes described above. The main categories of recipients are Other companies within the Grundfos Group. Business partners of Grundfos e.g. suppliers, sales and marketing partners including social media platforms, partners for digital offerings and IoT, logistics partners, event organisers, customers of Grundfos in respect of specific offerings e.g. water utilities, water treatment facilities or district heating providers, etc.. IT service providers and data processors on behalf of Grundfos, e.g.

hosting services, IT support, cloud services, user administration services, etc. Other recipients supporting Grundfos' business operations, e.g. consultants and advisers of Grundfos, sanctionsscreening partners, etc. Other authorised third parties who may need to access or store personal data if required or permitted by applicable law e.g. governmental authorities or other competent public bodies, courts, arbitral tribunals, attorneys, etc.. We do not sell your personal data or share it with irrelevant third parties. Grundfos ensures that such transfer will be carried out in accordance with the applicable data protection laws. We take great care to ensure compliance with local requirements when transferring data across borders. Profiling and automated decisionmaking We use profiling automated analyses or predictions based on a profile of you or similar categories of individuals and automated decisionmaking to provide you with valueadding content and interactions. As an example, this could be personalised offers, adverts and other marketing materials which we believe will be of greater value to you than generic marketing materials. It could also be to determine what, when, and how we should interact with you to optimise your customer or user experience, e.g. when to reach out to you with relevant materials, personalising your homepage or Grundfos Product Center experience, etc. As set out above, this entails that we may use data contained in e.g. our customer relationship management CRM system together with details about purchase history, product app, or other offering usage, service history, searches on our website, social media activity, etc., to achieve a more complete picture of your behaviours and demands as a customer or user. To the extent possible, we will anonymise and aggregate data when performing our analyses and compiling statistics.

You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes, including profiling related to such direct marketing, and you may also have the right to object in other circumstances. To the extent that you are subject to a decision based solely on automated processing which produces legal effects concerning you or which similarly significantly affects you, you have the right to obtain human intervention. Please refer to "Your rights" below. Retention of personal data Personal data collected for the purposes stated above will be stored only for as long as necessary for the relevant purpose. As examples When signing up for a Grundfos account, you will receive an account validation email and up to two reminder emails. If you have not validated your account after 7 days, your personal data will be deleted. Furthermore, if you have not been active for two years 24 months, your Grundfos account including your personal data will be deleted. Before deletion you will receive two email reminders after 23 months of nonuse. If you are a customer or supplier, or if your employer is, we will keep your contact details for as long as we have an active relationship with you. When the relationship is no longer active, the personal data will be kept for an additional period to ensure that we are able to reestablish the relationship if necessary, or for as long as required under applicable law and as long as necessary to ensure proper performance of any remaining contractual obligations. If you have previously been a user of our digital offerings, we may retain your personal data for a reasonable period of time following deactivation to facilitate onboarding and quality of usability of the digital offerings if you choose to return to the digital offering at a later point in time. We will set the retention period based on what we believe to be a realistic time period for returning users.

Calls to our customer support function and caller ID will be stored for three months. In order to keep records of purchases made and agreements entered into, logs or recordings may be kept for a longer period if you have purchased a product or service by phone. If a judicial or disciplinary action is initiated or contemplated, the personal data may be stored until the end of such action, including any potential periods for appeal, and will then be deleted or archived. When personal data is deleted, the data including behaviour information may be kept in an anonymised form that does not allow you to be identified. Your rights You always have the following right Withdrawal of consent If you have declared your consent for any personal data processing activities, you may withdraw this consent at any time with future effect. Such a withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of the processing prior to the consent or processing based on a different legal basis than consent. Depending on your location and subject to applicable laws, including the GDPR, you may also benefit from the below rights Right of access You may have the right to obtain from us confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning you is processed, and, where that is the case, to request access to the personal data. Right to rectification You may have the right to obtain from us the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning you. Right to restriction of processing Under certain circumstances, you may have the right to obtain from us restriction of processing your personal data. In this case, the respective data will be marked and may only be processed by us for certain purposes. Right to data portability Under certain circumstances, you may have the right to receive the personal data concerning you, which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, and you may have the right to transmit those data to another entity without hindrance from us.
